

PRIVACY POLICY

Aegis Sciences Corporation (“Aegis”) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information you share with us. The purpose of this privacy policy is to set out the principles governing our use of personal information, used to catalog or identify users of this website or purchasers of our products or services via our website. If you give us personal information, we will treat it according to this policy.

Please note that this policy does not apply to sensitive client information related to drug testing and the specific privacy laws relating to the handling of your health information; for information on these matters, please see our Health Insurance Portability Act Privacy Policy (HIPPA) or click on the following link.

Collection of information and security

Aggregate information

Like many companies, we monitor the use of this website by collecting aggregate information. No personally identifiable data are collected in this process. Typically, we collect information about the number of visitors to the website, to each web page and the originating domain name of the visitor's Internet Service Provider. This information is used to improve the usability, performance and effectiveness of the web site.

How we collect aggregate information

In some instances, Aegis may collect aggregate data through cookies. The majority of web browsers accept cookies and similar files, but you can usually change the browser settings to prevent this. However, if you do so, some functionality of this web site may be lost.

Personal information

If you are required to register in order to use a feature of this web site or to complete an online application form (e.g. to obtain e-mail updates or online publications), we will collect personally identifiable information about you, such as your name and e-mail address which you voluntarily submit.

Security

We store your personal data on a secure server that is password protected and shielded from the outside world by a firewall. We have in place security policies that are intended to ensure, as far as possible, the security and integrity of all our information, including your personal information.

Sharing your personal information

Data processing and storage

If we obtain any personal information about you, we may share it within Aegis for purposes of data processing or storage.

Authorized third-party agents

We also may share your personal information with authorized third-party agents or contractors in order to provide a requested service or transaction. For example, if we need to ship something to you, we must share your name and address with a shipping company. We only provide third-party agents with the minimum amount of personal information necessary to complete the requested service or transaction.

Transmission and Disclosure of drug testing data

Aegis will make every effort to ensure that all information provided by you is kept secure. However, Aegis is not responsible in the event of inadvertent transmission or disclosure of drug testing data, or personal data related thereto, to either you or to a third party. Please see Aegis website terms of use and corresponding limitation of liability on this website.

Legal requirements and illegal activities

We may respond to subpoenas, court orders, or legal process by disclosing your personal information and other related information, if necessary. We may collect and share personal information in order to investigate or take action regarding illegal activities, suspected fraud, violations of Aegis' Terms of Use, or as otherwise required by law.

Notice and choice for onward transfer

We will ask you for your opt-in consent to share your personal information with a third party for any other reason.

Children

Our Web sites do not target and are not intended to attract children under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect information from or about children.

Access and corrections

You also have a right to require any inaccuracies in your information to be corrected. You can ask us to modify your details by sending an e-mail.

Opting out

We may, from time to time, contact you by e-mail with information about our products or services. If you do not wish to receive such e-mails you can easily opt out by sending us an e-mail.

Third-party links

Our Web site may provide links to other third-party web sites that are outside our control and not covered by this policy. We encourage you to review the privacy policies posted on these (and all) sites.

Change

We may change our privacy policy from time to time. We therefore ask you to check it occasionally to ensure that you are aware of the most recent version.

How to contact us

We welcome feedback and questions on this privacy policy. If for any reason you wish to contact us, please send an e-mail.
